Published by the Senior Class of Mars Hill High School, Mars Hill, North Carolina

Foreword

We, the seniors of Mars Hill High School, are completing twelve years of learning directed by our parents and teachers. These years have been filled with study at home and at school, with congenial friendships, and with enough recreation and play to keep our study from becoming monotonous. We have gradually been made conscious of the fact that we are living in a world filled with varied ideologies, a world drawn together so fast by means of modern communications, that we keenly feel the need for safe and harmonious living among peoples, races and pressure groups.

We have sought to find a way by which we, the youth of our school, our state, our nation, and our world can fill our obligation to help contribute to world harmony and progress. We think we have found the solution in a sincere dedication of the use of the greatest gift given to man by The Creator of Life—the mind. The driving force of your WILDCAT staff has been to present the students with an annual which emphasizes the importance of our using our minds to their maximum ability, and to create in each student the desire to use his mind for self-improvement and for service to society.

After a busy day.

With your welcome smile, your sincere interest, and your excellence both as a teacher and as a devoted counselor, you, Mrs. Suttles, have won the respect and admiration of all the students at Mars Hill High. You have given us high standards by which to live, and worthy goals for which to work. It is with extreme gratitude that we dedicate this 1960 edition of THE WILDCAT to you... MRS. HAZEL SUTTLES.

Student Council Encourages Self-Discipline

Being selected to represent the student body as members of the Student Council gives these students their first experience in our American way of life and government—democracy. This participation in self-government shows each student his responsibility toward his country both as an individual and as a member of the group.

Energetic Office Staff--Efficient Office Procedure

These assistants to the principal perform the duties of a receptionist and a secretary. As receptionist they take phone messages, greet parents, and students; they also type letters, locate materials, and assist the school treasurer. This experience will be of great value to them in their future vocations.

Library Staff Guides Students In Selecting Books

The library assistants are students who volunteer to work in the library one hour each day. They are responsible for checking out books and magazines, keeping books shelved in order, helping students locate materials, and keeping the library neat and clean. The girls find this experience of value in their own use of the library, and the training will be beneficial when they go on to college.

The shrouds of mysticism and suspense have parted and the 1960 WILDCAT is yours. The WILDCAT staff has had a most enlightening and enjoyable time compiling and editing, for you, this year's annual. We should like to issue a very special note of thanks for those who gave of their time and effort that this annual might be published. We sincerely hope that you receive as much enjoyment from poring over the pages of this annual as we have had in compiling it for you.

Bailey Echoes' Staff Conveys School Spirit

MISS WILSON

In assembling the data on the latest occurrences around the campus, and in informing the student body, the Bailey Echoes' staff is batting 1.000.

The assignment of reports, the struggle to get the true facts, and the satisfaction received when the work is made manifest a top-notch school paper—all these things are characteristics of the work done by the Bailey Echoes' staff. Because of its aptness in relating the memorable events and in revealing the outstanding personalities on our campus, the Bailey Echoes has received top honors among the school papers in the Western North Carolina District.

The F. T. A. is the culmination of a long evolution in the preparation of teachers for their high responsibility. This club gives prospective teachers experience in teacher-pupil relationships. The F. T. A. members are junior members of both state and national associations and become familiar with their history, ideals, programs, leaders, and methods of work. This definite preparation of the student through practice to take part in the professional organizations in which he will spend his mature life is of utmost importance to our profession and nation.

Marshals Are Acknowledged For Leadership.

Because of the high scholastic averages, the strong characters, and the high ideals of these students, they were chosen Junior Marshals by the members of the faculty. They have the honor of seating guests, giving programs and being of general assistance at the Bacculaurate and Graduation Exercises.

Honor Students Receive Recognition For Study.

Some students enter the ninth grade with a determination to get a good foundation for a specific vocation. They learn to get a thrill from gaining knowledge and participating in worthwhile activities. With consistency of effort, at the end of four years they are rewarded by being chosen as honor students of the Senior Class.

"Randolph, what are you doing under the sofa!"

Participation in the senior play allows the actors to obtain a knowledge of dramatics. Trying hours of memorizing, practicing, and organizing assure a successful performance. The hard work involved is forgotten with the phrase, "Curtain going up! Places everyone!"

"Don't strike me!"

Self-Confidence Is Encouraged By 4-H Projects.

The 4-H Club attempts to encourage an interest in farming. To get a first-hand view of the joys and sorrows of farming, the members are asked to complete a farm project during the year. At monthly meetings, questions are asked and advice is given concerning these projects. Prizes are offered to those who excel in completing their projects.

The Jr. 4-H Club was organized in the Winter of 1959 to decrease the excessive membership in the Sr. 4-H Club. Its members are taken from the freshman and sophomore classes. The attainments of this new club have exceeded all expectations, and their members are looking forward to greater progress in the future.

The F.F.A., an inter-curricular activity, is composed of 485 state chapters. These chapters are divided into six districts and our district is divided into nine federations. Our immediate federation is comprised of Madison, Buncombe, and Yancey Counties. So far this year, the F.F.A. has won the state Tobacco Judging contest banner and the federation banner for Tool-Judging. In the past eight years, with the exception of one, the F.F.A. has won an Overall banner for each year.

ATHLETICS

Training And Building . . .

The '59 football teams ended the season with a commendable record. Despite injuries and last year's graduation losses, the Wildcats won four games, lost four and tied two. Because of an automobile accident, Mr. Peek was out of school for about eight weeks following the first game. Coach Bennett did a wonderful job as head coach in his absence. At the end of the season, Larry Joe Phillips, J. D. Thomason, Billy Cody, and Floyd Grindstaff were chosen for the All-conference team.

Cheerleaders Encourage Victory.

The cheerleaders' dauntless enthusiasm has undoubtedly contributed to the success of the '59 football team. When the game is over and our team has won, the cheerleaders are so hoarse they can hardly congratulate the team; however, the hoarseness is not important... another win for Mars Hill.

Girls' Basketball Team . . .

With sportsmanship, athletic ability, and undaunted spirits, mix a generous portion of teamwork and your have the girls' basketball team. The team, with much hard work and determination ended the '59-60 season with an outstanding record of 13 wins and 5 losses. The season ended with the team's placing second in the county tournament. Brenda Ponder, Avanell Silvers, and Eula Ponder were honored by receiving basketballs, and by being chosen for the All-Tournament Team.

From the very first game, the varsity team displayed winning characteristics. They established their superiority as a team when they were declared county and Pisgah Conference champions. The team exhibited sportmanship as well as ability throughout the season. Three members of the team were chosen for the All-Conference team. These were: J. D. Thomason, Doyle Wheeler, and Hubert Metcalf.

Hustling Wildcats Hurl Their Team To Victory.

The 1960 "Wildcats" have the promise of becoming one of Mars Hill's best teams and of adding another trophy to the already-full trophy case. The team will be fast in the race for county and conference honors. "Southpaw" Pender Shook should give good support to the pitching staff. Doyle Wheeler and J. D. Thomason should provide some fireworks at the plate, while Floyd Grindstaff does some effective fielding.

Junior League Boys Are Enthusiastic Players.

Coach Bennett completed a very successful season with the Babe Ruth and Little League teams. The team's enthusiasm and interest mixed with Mr. Bennett's determined coaching proved to be a very effective combination as both teams won the County Championship.

Little League won 16; lost 3

Second row: Benny Roberts, Pat Sams, O'Neill Shelton, Hubert Metcalf, J. P. Robinson, Donald Radford, Claude Griffin, Gus Ballard, Richard Anderson, Butch Phillips.

Monogram Club Recognizes Achievement

The membership of the Monogram Club is composed of atheletes, band members, and senior cheerleaders who have received a school letter. Obtaining a school letter is a task not easily accomplished. Some of the factors considered in awarding school letters are: being on time, doing your "dead-level" best, and attempting to improve. A student is indeed honored when he receives his school letter.

J. V. Basketball

The Junior Varsity team, coached by Mr. Bennett, prepares Freshman and Sophomore basketball boys for the varsity team. They learn the rudiments of the game and get a first-hand view of the work involved in becoming a proficient athlete. The team retained the county championship trophy which it won last year and had the satisfaction of knowing it was prepared for any future competition.

First row, left to right: J. Ball, manager; J. Greene, L. Smith, R. Anderson, J. Clouse, M. Hembree. Second row: B. Phillips, manager; R. Hunter, R. Greene, R. Peek, J. Buckner, B. Pate, Coach B. Bennett.

Queens For A Season.

Football Queen

JOYCE BOONE

Joyce's debonair personality and interest in the football team explains why the squad elected her as their "Queen." Joyce is a Freshman, a good student, and a participant in many extra-curricular activities.

Band Queen

PAULINE BRIGGS

The band members selected Pauline as their Queen because of her consistent interest in the band. She has been a band member for six years, and in the '59 season acted as majorette. Her versatility in the band has helped to make it an outstanding musical organization.

HOWARD PAYNE

Mechanic Combines Fun With Work.

Witty... cheerful... good-natured... always on the job... and a friend to all the students and faculty. Mr. Payne has a tremendous job trying to keep all the buses in good condition. He never grumbles no matter how dirty or hard the task. During the snowy days his job is even more difficult, since he is responsible for putting chains on the buses.

Bus Drivers Are Reliable.

The bus drivers always have an awareness of their responsibility, keeping students quiet... bringing them to and from school. The drivers are careful, cheerful, and very reliable. Parents can be confident that the drivers will do their best to transport these children as safely as possible.

Janitors Never Fail Us.

Three cheers for our three Custodians who are at school long before we students arrive to make sure we are warm and comfortable for our day's work. When anything goes wrong in our building we hurry to them; when we have to go to the doctor, they are always ready to drive the school car; when there is some job that has to be done and no one present to do it, they seem to appear; when we leave Mars Hill High, we will not forget them.

Cafeteria Staff Has Many Friends.

It is wonderful to go down the lunch line and see six of our best friends, the always-present Cafeteria Staff, behind the hot, well-cooked food and have them serve our plates so bountifully. This is a break we all enjoy, because of the good food and the good fellowship which begins with our lunch line.
